

APPLICATION FORM
SUMMER INSTITUTE IN PAPYROLOGY 2018
WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY IN ST. LOUIS

Personal information

A. Name (last, first, middle initial):

B. Preferred mailing address:

C. Preferred e-mail address:

D. Preferred telephone number (should have voicemail):

E. Citizenship:

If not U.S., please specify country and (if applicable) U.S. residency status.

Education

A. Degrees:

Include all degrees earned, the awarding institution, and the date of award.

B. Knowledge of ancient Greek:

Ph.D. students: Please indicate the number of years of study, level of study, courses taken, authors read (if not clear from course names), and degree of proficiency. Post-doctoral applicants: Please summarize your training and indicate Greek courses/authors taught and level (undergraduate or graduate).

C. Other ancient and modern languages:

Indicate years of study and level of proficiency.

Latin:

Coptic:

German:

French:

Italian:

Arabic:

Others:

D. If English is not your native language, please indicate your English-language ability:

E. What other courses in ancient studies have you taken or taught?

F. Have you had previous training in papyrology? If so, please describe it.

G. For Ph.D. students only:

What doctoral qualifying exams (oral or written) have you passed, and when did you pass them?

What is the focus of your dissertation?

Who is your dissertation director?

For post-doctoral candidates only:

Title of dissertation, name of dissertation director:

H. List any pertinent awards and publications:

Personal statement:

What do you expect to gain from participation in this summer institute?

You may attach a separate sheet, but please limit your response to one page.

Names and e-mail addresses of referees:

For Ph.D. students, one of the referees should be the dissertation director or principal advisor.

1)

2)

The applicant must arrange to have two letters of recommendation sent directly by the referee to the address below. Letters for Ph.D. students should address language proficiency.

This form and any attachments should be sent to:

aspsummer2018@berkeley.edu

The deadline for all application materials is 5:00pm (PST), 2 February 2018.